Back by popular demand, Joey and his team of coaches will host the Glebe Greyhounds Winter Footy Camp this school holidays.

It will be a great 5 days of fun and skill development at Jubilee for the second week of the school holidays 11th of July to the 15th of July from 9am to 3pm with before and after care!

As before, the camp will be led by club legend and former Swans Reserve player and Glebe Greyhound Director of Coaching, Joey Britton. Joey has some great plans for the camp and is counting the days down to kick off!

We will provide plenty of fruit and drinks for the kids but they should bring their own lunch.

The famous Greyhounds BBQ will be in action on the last day as well as presentation and prizes for all including Best on Ground, Best and Fairest and the Greylow (Glebe's version of the Brownlow).

So that we get the planning right we will need to limit numbers so if you are keen please confirm your child's participation by making a direct transfer the clubs account below and emailing the confirmation to Mark Gibbins footycamp@glebejafc.org.au by return email stating your child's age, the days attending, and Before and After Care requirements. (Before and After Care can be confirmed at a later date if required) To assist with finance reconciliation and registration please include CAMP and your child's name in the funds transfer box.
